

September 2, 2011

The educational presentation for the association was given by Jim Miller. The topic was about how to winter over your bees.